

Version 1.0 (Superseded)

Effective Date: January 1, 2025

Last Updated: May 10, 2025

Purpose

This policy defines reimbursement procedures and spending limits for employees undertaking business travel and corporate activities on behalf of Eriksson & Holm.

Employees are expected to submit accurate expense reports and comply with all reimbursement requirements described in this document.

===== SECTION 1: GENERAL POLICY

1.1 Eligibility

All full-time and contract employees approved for business travel are eligible for reimbursement under this policy.

1.2 Submission Requirements

Employees must submit expense reports within 30 calendar days of the incurred expense.

1.3 Required Documentation

Reimbursement claims must include original receipts, invoices, and supporting documentation.

1.4 Currency Handling

Foreign currency expenses shall be converted using the official exchange rate applicable on the transaction date.

1.5 Compliance

Expenses violating company guidelines may be rejected or partially reimbursed.

SECTION 1.6 Approval Workflow

Expenses below 400 SEK may be automatically approved.

Expenses above 400 SEK require management approval prior to reimbursement.

Repeated policy violations may trigger additional review procedures.

===== SECTION 2: PROFESSIONAL TRAVEL
REIMBURSEMENT =====

2.1 Travel Expense Limits

Employees traveling for official company purposes may claim reimbursement according to the following limits:

Standard Lodging Allowance:
Maximum 1,500 SEK per night.

Ground Transport Cap:
Maximum 600 SEK per day.

Taxi Reimbursement:
Permitted only when public transportation is unavailable or impractical.

Airfare:
Economy class travel is required unless executive approval is obtained.

VAT Handling:
All approved expenses shall include VAT processing at the standard rate of 25%.

Meal Allowance: 300 SEK

Employees exceeding approved limits without prior authorization may receive partial reimbursement or claim rejection.

2.2 International Travel

International travel requires prior written approval from department management.

Travel itineraries must be submitted at least seven business days before departure.

===== SECTION 3: EXPENSE AUDIT AND
COMPLIANCE =====

3.1 Audit Procedures

Expense reports may be audited periodically to ensure policy compliance.

Fraudulent claims may result in disciplinary action.

3.2 Exceptions

Exceptional business circumstances may justify reimbursement beyond stated limits subject to executive approval.

3.3 Record Retention

Expense documentation shall be retained for a minimum of five years.

===== SECTION 4: POLICY ACKNOWLEDGEMENT
=====

Employees acknowledge understanding and acceptance of this policy by submitting reimbursement requests through approved corporate systems.

Questions regarding this policy should be directed to:
